

Holy Infant Women's Guild ~ Catholic Book Club

The Women's Guild is launching a new book club in January. Our goal is to offer enjoyable, inspirational reading while deepening your faith. Its focus will be on women saints, women of the Bible, Catholic women authors.

My friend Donna DiMassa has agreed to be our discussion leader. She and her husband Mike live in Milford, CT and are parishioners of St. Raphael Parish. Donna is a participant and/or discussion leader in a number of book clubs, including the New England Catholic Bible School Book Club. In fact, Donna and Mike attended the New England Catholic Bible School offered by the Archdiocese for four years; the study was very comprehensive and included the Bible in its entirety. In January 2023, Donna and Mike traveled to Israel with the Archbishop.

Donna and I were very thoughtful and thorough in selecting our first title, Hills of Moab. It is historical-fiction. The novel is based on the Book of Ruth, a short book in the Old Testament. To fully participate in the discussion, you should read the novel and the Book of Ruth from your Bible.

Our first meeting is scheduled for January 21, 2025, 1:00pm - 3:00pm, in the Guild Hall. To join, please send an email:
